

FLANNERY

TILLMAN FLANNERY:

Son of Reece Bowen and Martha E. Dickerson Flannery.

REECE BOWEN FLANNERY:

He is first mentioned in the 1860 Morgan County, Kentucky census, at which time he was three years of age, and most likely born in Morgan County around 1857. If his grave is marked, the tombstone might give the exact date of birth.

This same census record indicates that Reece was living in the home of his widowed mother, Ellender Flannery.

Reece B. Flannery and Martha E. Dickerson were married in Elliott County, Kentucky on June 15, 1875. It is indicated that Reece's father, John Flannery, was born in Scott County, Virginia. The marriage record reads as follows: "June 15, 1875, Reece B. Flannery, 17, of Elliott County, born in Morgan County, father born in Scott County, Virginia, married Martha E. Dickerson, 26, born in Russell County, Virginia, father born in Virginia, mother born in ????"

Martha E. Dickerson, nicknamed "Matt", was born May 12, 1848, in Virginia, and died December 7, 1917, most likely in Elliott County. She was a daughter of Edward and Malinda Hickenbottom Dickerson, natives of Virginia, who later moved to Kentucky. (Dickersons were found living in Floyd County, Kentucky in the 1830s.)

The 1880 Elliott County, Kentucky Census gives the following information:

~~#142 Flannery, Reece B. 22 Farmer Born in Ky.~~
Martha E. 32 Va.
John S. 4 Ky.
William N. 2 Ky.
Sarah E. 27 days (b. in May) Ky.

Other records indicate that John S. Flannery was born September 8, 1876, in Elliott County, and died December 26, 1934, Oldtown, Greenup County, Kentucky.

The 1880 Elliott County Census also lists Edward Dickerson, the father of Martha Flannery. He was 65 years of age and stated that he was born in "Va." His wife, Malinda, was 66 and also born in Virginia.

The census records for 1890 were destroyed by fire in Washington, D.C., however, the Elliott County tax records for that year are extant, and from them we can glean a considerable amount of information. It is indicated that Reece B. Flannery was living in the Cracker's Neck Precinct and owned 75 acres of land. The total value of his property was $527. There were four children age 6 to 20 years in his home.

This same tax record indicates that Edward Dickerson was a resident of the Cracker's Neck Precinct, and owned 81 acres. He apparently lived near Newfoundland with Joe King being his nearest neighbor.

1900 Elliott County, Kentucky Census (Craker's Neck Precinct):

#179	Flannery, Reese B.	42	(Born in May 1858)	Ky.	Married 25 years,
	Martha	52	(" May 1848)	Va.	7 children
	Nancy E.	17	(" Sep 1882)	Ky.
	Martha M.	15	(" May 1885)	Ky.
	Tillman	13	(" Apr. 1887)	Ky.
	Maggie	11	(" May 1889)	Ky.
	John E.	6	(" July 1893)	Ky.

I find no record for John S., and William N., children listed in the 1880 census; however, one record indicates that a Johnny Flannery married Elizabeth Howerton, but no indication who William married. Sarah E. was married to Charlie Jarrells, and indeed, the 1880 census names a Charley Jarrells, age 20, and his wife, Sarah, also 20. Both had been born in 1880, and were living in the home of Amos D. and Elizabeth Jarrells, Charley's parents.

1910 Elliott County, Kentucky Census (Cracker's Neck Precinct):

#77	Flannery, R. B.	61	Born in Ky.	Married 36 years,
	Martha	62	" Va.	7 children, all living.
	Elizabeth	26	" Ky.
	Tillman	23	" Ky.
	Edward	17	" Ky.	Nephew
	Lillian	6	" Ky.	Granddaughter
	Myrtle	3	" Ky.	" "

Obviously, there is an inconsistency in the age given for Reece in 1910. If his date of birth for previous records is correct, he should have been 51 in the above record. (When the census was taken in June of 1900, Reece had recently had a birthday, making it appear that the age given on May 14, 1910 was off by a year. Obviously, his birthday was after May 14.)

Elizabeth, named in the 1910 census, was most likely the "Lizzie" Flannery that later married Alonzo DeHart, a son of Thomas Madison and Malinda Pennington DeHart.

Tillman Flannery later married Effie Murray.

Reese Bowen Flannery was a son of John "Jack" and Eleanor (or Ellender) Vansant Flannery.

JOHN FLANNERY:

The 1850 census indicates that he was 35 years of age, therefore, he was born around 1814 or 1815. That he was a native of Virginia is proven by his death record as recorded in Morgan County, Kentucky: "John Flannery, 45; married; born in Va., to John and Nancy Flannery; died of typhoid fever, February 12, 1859."

On one occasion he is listed as William Flannery, but there can be little doubt that his real name was John Flannery, Jr.

John Flannery, Jr., may have been married twice; however, there is no absolute proof that he had been married prior to his marriage to Elizabeth Vansant in Morgan County, Kentucky on August 27, 1849. Elizabeth is almost always referred by the name Ellender, or Ellen, and Vansant could have been her surname from a previous marriage. I am inclined to believe, though, that she was a Vansant by birth.

No Flannerys are named in the 1830 or 1840 Morgan County, Kentucky census records; however, John Flannery, Jr., is named in the 1850 Morgan County Census:

#621	Flannery, John, Jr.	35	Farmer	Born in Va.
	Ellen	33		" Va.
	Sarah	11		" Va.
	Elizabeth	9		" Va.
	Bluelier	7		" Va.
	Wm.	5		" Ky.
	Martha	3		" Ky.
	Singleton	6 months		" Ky.

Living near John Flannery, Jr., was another John Flannery, age 71, and also born in Virginia. Elizabeth, apparently his wife, was 63. It would seem likely that the elder John was the father of John, Jr.; however, if the mother of John, Jr., was not Nancy Elizabeth, it would seem apparent that John, Sr., had married at least a second time.

As previously mentioned, some records indicate that John Flannery, Jr., was sometimes listed as William Flannery, Jr., but most records show him as John, Jr. Perhaps his full name was John William Flannery, Jr.

Keeping in mind that John Flannery, Jr., died early in 1859, we would not expect to find him named in the 1860 census. And, indeed, his widow is named as the head of the household in the 1860 Morgan County, Kentucky Census:

#470	Flannery, Ellender	43	Born in Va.
	Sarra J.	21	" Va.
	Henderson	17	" Va.
	William R.	14	" Va.
	Martha A.	12	" Va.
	Isaac S.	10	" Va.
	John R.	7	" Ky.
	Nancy	5	" Ky.
	Reece B.	3	" Ky.

Elizabeth Flannery, age 9 in the 1850 census, had married and left the home of her parent by 1860. Morgan County, Kentucky marriage records reveal that Elizabeth Flannery and Ambrose Howerton had married March 11, 1858 in that county. They are named in the 1860 census as family #20. Ambrose was 27 years of age and born in Kentucky; Elizabeth was 18 and born in Kentucky (I believe she was born in Virginia). They had one child, Henderson V., age 1 year.

John Flannery, Sr., is not named in the 1860 census, therefore, I think we can assume that he was deceased by that year.

Researchers say that sometime after the death of John Flannery, Jr., his widow, Ellender, married William Howerton, a widower, and the father of Ellender's son-in-law, Ambrose Howerton. In the 1870 Elliott County Census, William is listed as John Howerton:

#28	Howerton, John	70	Farmer	Born in Va.
	Ellen	63		" Va.
	Martha	23		" Ky. (I think born in Va.)
	John	18		" Ky.
	Nancy	15		" Ky.
	Reece	13		" Ky.

Apparently, Ellen's age is incorrect. Judging by previous records, she would have been 53. Also, it appears that the census taker's indication that Martha was born in "Ky" is also incorrect. However, it should be pointed out that the census taker listed her place of birth correctly, and whoever transcribed the information from microfilm could have copied it incorrectly. That frequently happened with census information.

It should be mentioned that a John Howerton and Barbara Jones were married in Floyd County, Kentucky on June 26, 1817. They are named in the 1850 Morgan County, Kentucky Census, and could well be the parents of Ambrose, who was listed as being 18 years of age.

No Howertons were named in the 1810 Floyd County Census; however, the following are on the 1820 census: Nathan, John, William, and James.

Henderson Flannery, age 17, in the 1860 Morgan County Census, is sometimes seen as William, Wilbourn, Henderson, or Milbourn Flannery. Since Wilbourn H. Vansant was undoubtedly a near-relative, Wilbourn could have been part of his full name. He and his wife, Amanda S. Foster, are named on the 1870 Elliott County, Kentucky Census:

#130	Flannery, Milborn	28	Farmer	Born in Va.
	Amanda	30		" Va.
	John	6		" Ky.
	Huston	4		" Ky.
	Mary	2		" Ky.

When the 1880 census was taken, Henderson Flannery's family was enumerated as follows:

#119	Flannery, Henderson	38	Farmer	Born in Va
	Amanda S.	41		" Ky.
	John H.	16		" Ky.
	William H.	14		" Ky.
	Mary L.	12		" Ky.
	Jemima	9		" Ky.
	Martha E.	6		" Ky.
	Sarah A.	4		" Ky.
	James	2		" Ky.

It appears that William Henderson and William R. Flannery both carried the same first name, which was not infrequent for that time. Birth records reveal the following: "Sept. 8, 1875, Sarah A. Flannery, daughter of William H. Flannery and Amanda S. Foster, born in Elliott County, Kentucky. Father born in Scott County, Virginia; mother born in Morgan County, Kentucky."

"Oct. 8, 1875. Alis L. Flannery, daughter of William R. Flannery and Nancy L. Foster, born in Elliott County, Kentucky. Father born in Floyd County, Kentucky; mother born in Morgan County, Kentucky."

One Nancy Flannery is listed as a Foster, while another is listed as a Davidson. When Harry Flannery was born on July 15, 1878, his mother is listed as Nancy A. Davidson, born in Carter County, Kentucky.

We get the following information from the 1880 Elliott County census:

#131	Flannery, William	24	Farmer	Born in Va.
	Nancy	22		" Ky.
	Wade	4		" Ky.
	John	2		" Ky.

Another son of John and Ellender Flannery, Isaac S., had married Sarah C. Gray, a daughter of James Madison and Elizabeth Cox Gray, on December 3, 1868, in Morgan County, Kentucky. They are also named in the 1880 Elliott County census:

#129	Flannery, Isaac	20	Farmer	Born in Ky.
	Sarah	16		" Ky.
	William	4 months		" Ky.

Isaac Flannery's middle name was Singleton.

By 1880, John Howerton was 86 years of age and again stated that he had been born in "Va." Ellender was 63, which corresponds with ages given in earlier census reports.

John R. Flannery, another son of John and Ellen, had married and was named in the 1880 census:

#143	Flannery, John R.	28	Farmer	Born in Ky.
	Margaret	29		" Va.
	William C.	1		" Ky.

It is my belief that Sarah J. Flannery married Jackson Conn, and indeed, a Morgan County, Kentucky record indicates that they were married March 28, 1860. Jackson was a son of Jesse and Margaret Kimball?? Conn. We find the following information in the 1870 Elliott County, Kentucky Census:

#58	Com, Jackson	34	Farmer	Born in Va.
	Jane	32		" Va.
	Tilmon	8		" Ky.
	William	6		" Ky.
	John	4		" Ky.
	George	3		" Ky.
	Ellen	11 months		" Ky.

I am unable to identify the husband of Nancy Flannery, who was born April 22, 1855, in that part of Morgan County that became a part of Elliott County in 1869. The record indicates that: "John Flannery and Elenor Vasant lived on Laurel Creek" at the time of Nancy's birth.

Other Flannerys

Records indicate that at least two other Flannery men were present in Elliott County at the same time John Flannery, Sr., and Jr., and their descendents were becoming residents of the newly-formed Elliott County. They were Singleton Flannery and Huston Flannery. Although I have seen no document that proves it, I think it is possible that they could have been brothers to John, Jr., or, at least, closely related in some way.

SINGLETON FLANNERY:

Records indicate that he was born about 1808 in Virginia, and later census information seems to support this. He is named in the 1880 Elliott County, Kentucky Census; however, he is not named in the 1890 tax records for that county. This would lead us to the assumption that he died sometime during the 1880s.

Singleton Flannery is not named on the 1830 Floyd County, Kentucky Census; however, if the date on his marriage record is correct, he arrived in that county in the early 1830s.

On September 22, 1833, Singleton Flannery and Delila Webb were married in Floyd County. They had at least eight children, all of them, perhaps, born in Floyd County.

Since Singleton Flannery is not named in the 1850 Morgan County, Kentucky census report, we can assume that he was still a resident of Floyd County. But by 1860, he had become a resident of Morgan County, most likely in the area that later became a part of Elliott County. He was named in the census records for that year and county:

#454	Flannery, Singleton	52	Born in Va.
	Delila	49	" Ky.
	Tandy	23	" Ky.
	Albert	21	" Ky.
	Morgan	18	" Ky.
	Littleton	15	" Ky.
	Walker	5	" Ky.
	Martin	8	" Ky.
	Sarah	35	" Va.

The broad age difference between Littleton and Martin might indicate that any children born in that space of time could have died. It would seem unlikely that no children were born during that time.

Sarah Flannery, named in the census, may have been a sister to Singleton. There is some indication that she might have been married to a Porter at one time, but there is apparently no proof of that.

By the time the 1870 census was taken, Delila Flannery was deceased, and Singleton had married his second wife, Elizabeth Porter. Morgan County marriage records indicate that this marriage was on September 2, 1869.

In 1870, only the two youngest children were in Singleton's home: Martin, 17 and Walker, 15. Sarah, the possible sister of Singleton, was still in his home. Elizabeth was 42 years of age and born in Kentucky; Singleton was 62, and born in Virginia.

The 1880 Elliott County records seem to indicate that Elizabeth Flannery had died and Singleton had married a third time. In that year, he indicated that he was 72 years old, and Harriet, who appears to have been his third wife, was 56. She indicated that she had been born in Virginia, and that her father was born in Germany.

The following is believed to be a complete list of Singleton Flannery's children, all born to his first wife, Delila Webb Flannery:

- 1) Sarah: Born about 1836, Floyd County; married John Wells.
- 2) Tandy: Born about 1837, Floyd County; married Nancy Elizabeth Murray in Morgan County, December 29, 1862.
- 3) Albert: Born about 1839, Floyd County; married #1, Virginia L. McFarland in Carter County, Kentucky, May 19, 1862; married #2, Mary Holbrook, May 7, 1876,

Elliott County, Kentucky

- 4) William R: Born about 1840, Floyd County; married Nancy L. Foster, April 9, 1867, Morgan County, Kentucky.
- 5) Morgan: Born about 1842, Floyd County; married Elizabeth Davidson in Morgan County, January 25, 1865.
- 6) Littleton: Born about 1845, Floyd County; married ????
- 7) Martin: Born July 20, 1852, Floyd County; married Martha ???
- 8) Walker: Born about 1855, Floyd County (could have been born in Morgan County); married Martha J. Howerton.

A large number of descendents from the above children may still be living in Elliott and surrounding counties; however, records for Littleton Flannery seem to be nonexistent. He may have died young, could have left this area at a young age, or maybe there is another explanation unknown to us today.

HUSTON FLANNERY:

Family records indicate that he was born about 1822 in Virginia. Isaac, John and Singleton Flannery, undoubtedly near-relatives, are named in the Floyd County, Kentucky records; however, there seems to be no mention of Huston.

As unlikely as it seems, it could be that Huston came directly from Virginia to Elliott County. Some researchers think he moved about 1846 to 1848, and, if so, this area would have still been a part of Morgan County.

One record shows that Huston Flannery married Manervia J. Vansant; however, the 1850 Morgan County census report gives her name as Almira.

Huston Flannery's family is enumerated in the 1850 Morgan County Census; however, additional information on him seems to be very limited.

#585	Flannery, Huston	28	Laborer	Born in Va.
	Almira	27		" Va.
	Nancy	5		" Va.
	William	4		" Va.
	Eliza	2		" Ky.
	John	1 month		" Ky.

It seems likely that Huston Flannery died shortly after the above census was taken. On August 10, 1853, his widow married John M. Adkins in Morgan County.

Morgan County marriage records do indeed show that John M. Adkins and Minervy Flannery were married on the above-mentioned date.

The 1860 Morgan County census names Manerva J. Adkins as the head of the household, with the following children: Nancy B. Flannery, 16; William S. Flannery, 14; Eliza E. Flannery, 13; John H. Flannery, 11; Rufus Flannery, 5; Van Adkins, 4; and Julia C. Adkins, 2.

The 1870 Elliott County Census shows the following:

#229	Adkins, Manerva	47	Keeping House	Born in Va.
	Nauna B.	26		" Va.
	Eliza	22		" Ky.
	John H.	20		" Ky.
	Rufus	16		" Ky.
	Van	14		" Ky.
	Julius F.	12		" Ky.
	Benjamin	9		" Ky.
	Lucinda	6		" Ky.
	Jacob	5		" Ky.
	William	4		" Ky.
	Sarah	2		" Ky.
	John	4 months		" Ky.
	Adkins, Columbus	36	Farm Hand	" Ky.
	Horton, William	22		" Ky.

Obviously, the first four children were Flannerys, not Adkinses, and the Nauna B., was Nancy B., in the 1860 census. Julius F. Adkins, 12, appears to have been the Julia C., age 2, in 1860. Some of the younger children could have been grandchildren. William Horton should have been named in the 1860 census, however, I am unable to locate him.

In 1880 Minerva J. Adkins was 56 years old, and listed as a "Widow". A daughter, Lucinda, 16, was living in her home, and a "Grandson", Rufus H. Flannery, 5, was living there, too.

Research indicates that Huston and Minerva Flannery had at least the following children:

- 1) Nancy B. Born around 1844, in Virginia; married William T. Hunter. They are enumerated in the 1880 Elliott County Census. William T. was 39, and indicated that he was born in Kentucky, and his parents were born in Tennessee. Nancy was 34, and born in Virginia. Also named as residents of their home: Vesta C., 13; Luther S., 11; Emma , 8 months; Jacob Flannery, 16, a step-son; Harvey Flannery, 14, a step-son; a step-daughter, Sarah Flannery, 12; and another step-son, J. Luther, 10. All children had been born in Kentucky.

William T. Hunter had been previously married, probably to Arminta Adkins. Vesta and Luther were their children. It appears that none of the step-children were named in the 1870 Elliott County Census.

Marriage records show that William Hunter and Nancy Flannery were married September 27, 1878. They are enumerated in the 1900 census with Luther and Emma still living at home with them.

- 2) William S. Born around 1846 in Virginia; married Manerva J. Foster in Morgan County, Kentucky on October 3, 1867. The 1870 census gives her name as Maranda; however, a birth record dated May 18, 1876 gives her name Manerva J. Foster. I have seen the name of only one child, James H.
- 3) Eliza E. Born about 1848 in Kentucky; supposedly married Ben F. Foster. I find no marriage record for them in the Morgan County marriage records; however, Elliott County birth records indicate that a child was born on September 15, 1875, to Ben F. Foster and Eliza Flannery. I find no further record for them.
- 4) John H. Born about 1850, in Kentucky; married Sarah E. _____.
The 1880 census names John H. Flannery, age 30, and a merchant. His wife, Sarah E., was 17 years of age. No children were listed.

Note: Perhaps the earliest Flannery found in Kentucky records was a James Flannery, listed as a Revolutionary War veteran who settled in Floyd County, Kentucky. There appears to be few, if any, additional records relative to him.

Dear Ms. Mathews:

Enclosed are the "Flannery" papers that I promised to send you. Also Dana I included a family group sheet with all the information about "Jason Braxton Pennington: that I have, If you could fill in or get all the info. that I have marked in red I will compensate you for your effort.

On the HIGHLIGHTED part of the Flannery papers are the people that are related to my wife, and also the Pennington connection. i.e. Jason was the father of my wife's mother, Lillian.

The day I was in Morehead I spoke with Curtiss Pennington, he was very friendly but did not have time to take me to the "Pennington family cemetery", which is 1 mile off of 32 and about 15 miles East of Sandy Hook-where Jason Pennington is interred. He himself did not seem to know too much about his father-when he died or was married.

Also I called the "Lane-Stuckey funeral home" who I was informed conducted his services, the information I was given was not the right man. As you will see when you look over the enclosed papers- the info. read thus-"Bracton Jason Pennington born July 13, 1910 died Dec. 13, 1964 at age 54. Wife, Mary Jane Forest, father, Mote White, mother, Gip Petett. The Jason I need to know about would be in his 80's or at least in his late 70's .When he died.

I spoke briefly with Shirley Adkins, Jason's daughter (Hiram Adkins). At the time she was leaving for an appointment for to see a doctor and I did not have time to return and interview her, she seemed to be a very nice lady. Or she did not want to know about her fathers indiscretions in his younger years!!!.

Dana, if you will do this for me I will forever be in your debt.

Your friend,

Adam f. Quillen
