Grandma also said there was a Tom^W by the first marriage but the census doesn't show it, unless he would be older or younger. She didn't give me Daniel as a child, I need to ask her about it again.

Celebrates Birthday

The family of Mrs. Lillie M. Davis gathered on July 19th to help celebrate her 100th birthday. The occasion was hosted by her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Swearingen, on Eckmansville Road, with whom she has made her home for the last 11 years.

It was a day filled with happy surprises. She was literally surrounded with flowers, other gifts and many cards, including the official greeting from President and Mrs. Reagan. Though feeble, this remarkable lady remains alert, and she thoroughly enjoyed all the festivities in her behalf. Her long life span has been an inspiration to her young descendants, as was proven by the outpouring of love and respect on her special day.

From California came Mrs. Charles Davis and her grandson, Loren Kretzschmar; from Colorado, Mrs. Claudia Koepping, Lee and Molly; from New Mexico, John Swearingen; from Nebraska, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Powell, Zachary, Joshua, Jared, Sabra, Amanda and Nikole; from Indiana, Mrs. Agnes Goodwin and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Capizzi; from Kentucky, Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Campbell, Mrs. Lorayne Sarley and Ms. Erna Davis; from Cincinnati, Mrs. Dolores Wozniak, Mrs. Catherine Gilman and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Weaver; from Dayton, Michael Baldrige and fiancée, Theresa Ward; from Covington, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Baldrige, Mrs. Cheryl Baldrige, Birman, Aaron, Joshua and Dana Hugh; from Milford, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Swearingen and Scottie; from Williamsburg, Donald Davis and Kristopher; from Higginsport, Mrs. Carole Fahn and Debra; from Adams and Brown Counties, Mrs. Mabel Davis, Mrs. Bertha Hamm, Mrs. Marie Trotter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Campbell and Rhonda, Mr. and Mrs. John Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Tolle, Hannah and Levi, Mrs. Eva M. Davis, Ira Swearingen and Mrs. Allene Baldrige.

During her century of living, Mrs. Davis has endured many hardships, including the loss of her husband 41 years ago, and the loss of all six of her sons. But she has retained her spirit and her sense of humor. She is deeply grateful to her daughter, Mildred, and her husband, Earle, for providing her with a lovely home during these later years, where every consideration is given to her well-being and comfort. She is most deserving of the utmost respect and love shown by all members of her two daughters' families who live nearby, as well as from the others who are farther away.

Mrs. Davis wishes to express appreciation to all who sent the lovely flowers, cards and other gifts and otherwise contributed to the success of her birthday party. She especially enjoyed the presence of so many of her loved ones. Altogether, her 100th birthday was indeed a very special day for her and for all those who shared it.
