This book is dedicated to

All of our strong and brave ancestors who braved this wild country of Kentucky and settled the land which some of us still live on today. To the men who built the houses without benefit of electric saws, chain saws or even comfortable beds to rest from their labors in. To the women who gave birth to our grandfathers and fathers without any DR's or pain medication. I wish I could have known them and wish they could know how proud we are of them. They could however have made this search easier by writing down their families names. Some could not write and some were too busy, so here is a big hat's off to all of them!!

I have compiled this book with the help of a lot of people and I thank all of you who helped me. Thanks for the pictures and the family stories. My cousin Vonetta told me the story about our "Indian Ancestor" who we will probably never find but does exist since this story has come down through the generations. A small Indian boy too small to climb on a horse was tied onto horseback and wandered into a Johnson Homestead the family kept him and raised him as their own. He is supposed to be our direct ancestor. We do not know if this was in VA or KY but we are supposed to be part Indian.

You will probably find mistakes in these pages. If so I am sorry I have done my best. Add to this for the following generations and be proud of our ancestors. They were Scottish or Indian Warriors brave and true. Have fun and enjoy my small effort.

Zachariah Richard Johnson born in 1778 somewhere in VA is the son of Benjamin and Drucilla. He was married four times and had around 20 to 22 children. He was named after his uncle Zachariah Richard Phelps. This picture was a painting and the one thing wrong is his hair the artist painted it white and he had black hair and a gray beard.

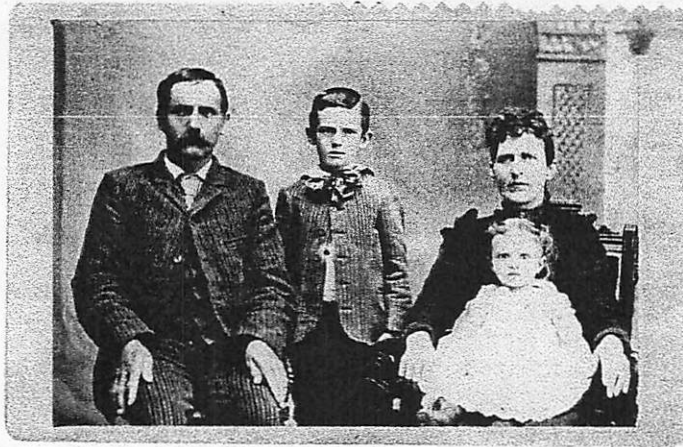

William Cord Johnson was the son of Zachariah and Amanda Saunders Johnson. He moved to TX and remained there. In this picture of him the lady standing is his sister Mary Elizabeth Johnson Haney Douglas. His wife is seated the two boys are unknown.

Decendants of Benjamin Franklin Johnson

Alice E. Johnson is the daughter of Zachariah and Amanda Saunders Johnson . She was born in Fleming Co, Ky in 1859. She married James A> Botts. They moved to TX and remained there.

Queen Victoria Johnson is the daughter of Zachariah and Amanda Saunders Johnson . She was born in Fleming Co, Ky on Dec 8, 1853. Morehead was called Triplett then. She married James Thompson.

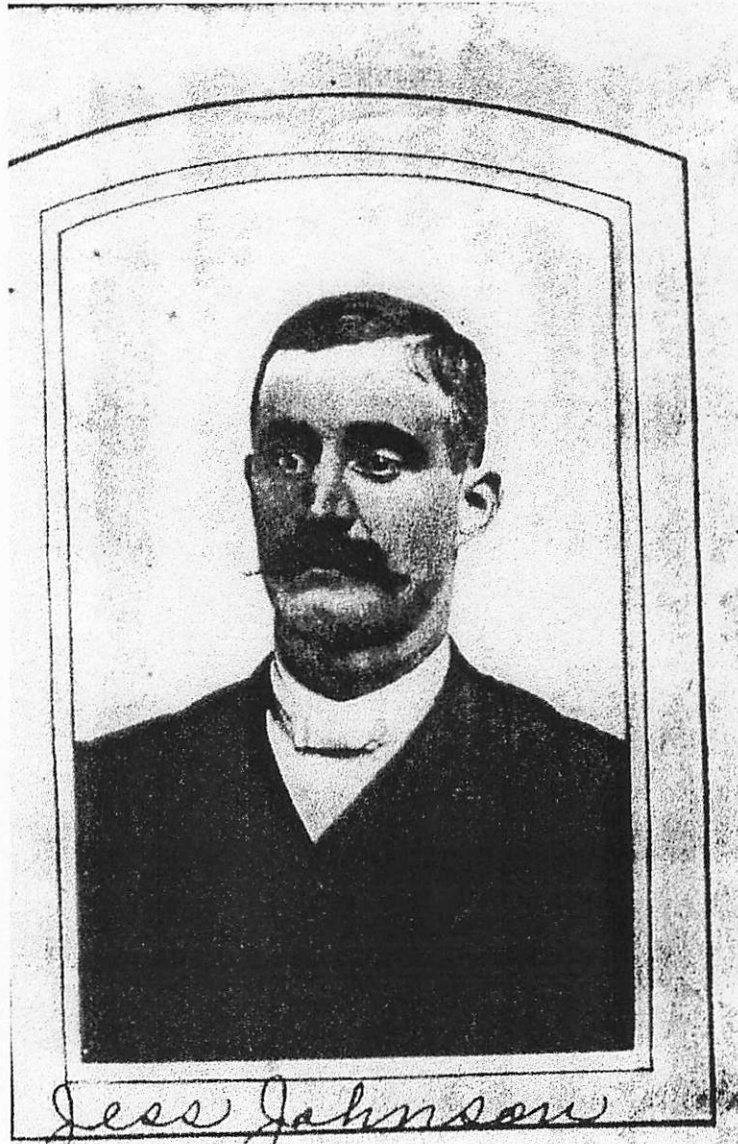

Mary Elizabeth Johnson is the daughter of Zachariah and Amanda Saunders Johnson . She was born in 1854 at Triplett, Fleming Co, Ky ..She first married a Haney and he died she then married John Douglas a farmer with money from OH. Her daughter Nora and husband Jeff Bowling came to live with them, because Jeff was in trouble in the Rowan Co. War, and in a couple of weeks Mr. Douglas was murdered by Jeff. He spent 7 years in jail and Nora divorced him..He married her younger sister Queen and moved to TX. Mary moved to TX and ran a boarding house. She is the lady standing behind her brother William Cord Johnson

Jessie Buford Johnson is the son of Zachariah and Mary Kring Johnson . He was born on Sept 15, 1864 in Rowan Co, Ky. He married Frances Amelia Biffle in TX. He moved there to live close to his brother William Cord Johnson. Later he moved farther away but still in TX.

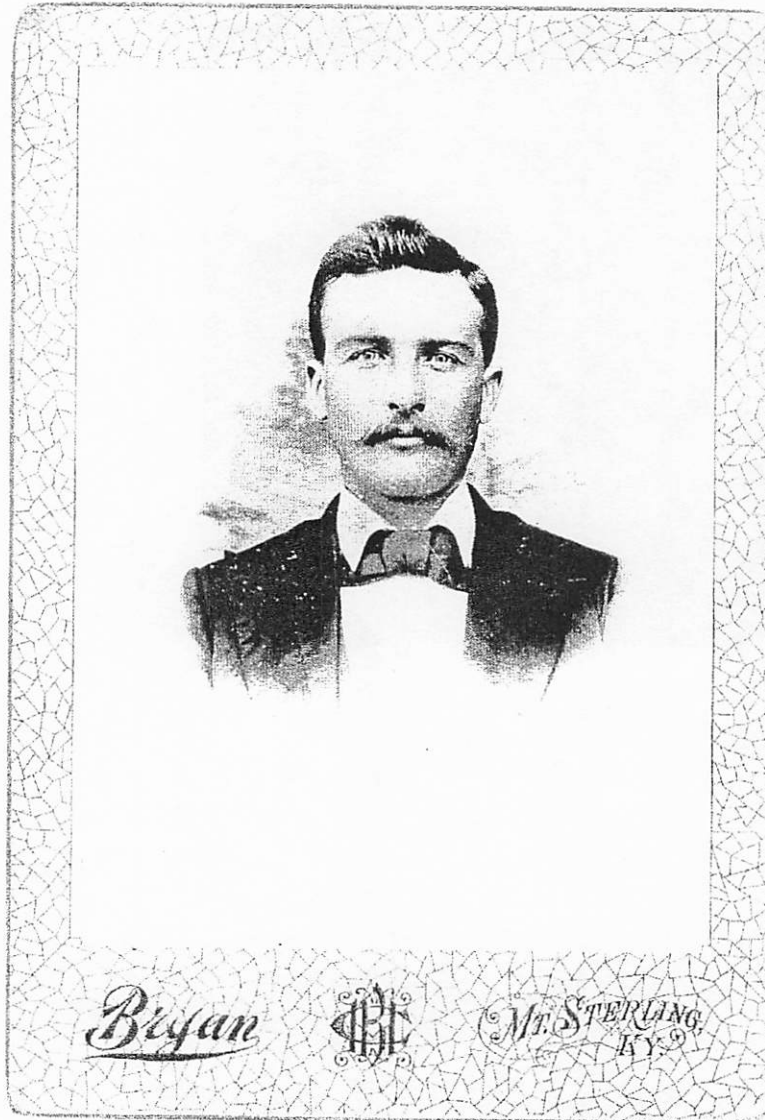

Basil Johnson is the son of Benjamin F. Johnson , son of Bazil Johnson son of Benjamin and Drucilla Johnson. He was born in Rowan co. Ky in 1845 and married Suzana Henderson .

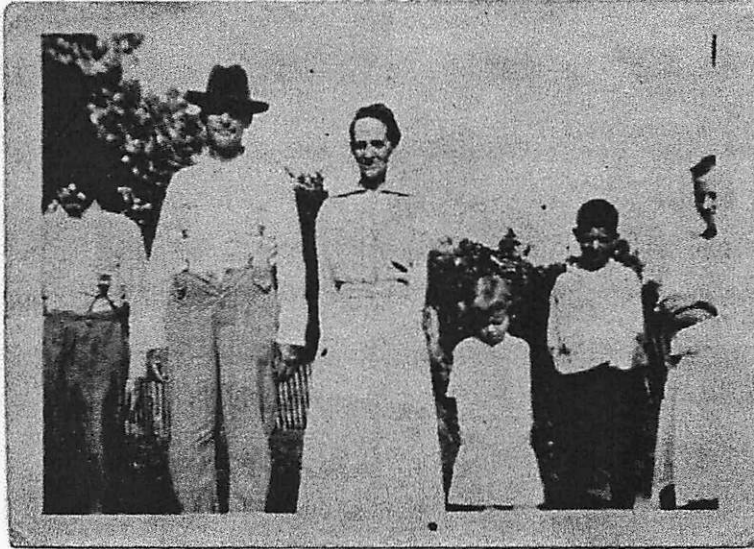

John Edward Johnson is the son of Basil Johnson born 1845. He married Vernie Hargis. He was born in Rowan Co, and ran a store at Hilda (at the foot of the Big Brushy hill on rt. 32). He and his wife are standing in the door. the older couple are Basil and Suzana and the rest are probably family but no one is left to identify them.

Thomas P. Johnson is the son of Benjamin Franklin Johnson and Emily Johnson. (Benjamin is son of Zachariah). Thomas was born 1866 in Rowan Co, KY he died of consumption in his thirties. He married twice. He is buried in the middle of the University of Morehead Farm. He at one time owned about all of it. Some other of his family is buried behind the farm in a small grave yard.

William Jasper Johnson is the first born son of Basil and Suzana Johnson. He was called "Jap" which he hated. Born in 1868 in Rowan Co, KY. He married Lizzie Purvis and they had a son named Simmie Johnson. He next married Alice Florence Thompson daughter of Queen Johnson and James Thompson this made they cousins. Queen Johnson Thompson had a sister named Eliza Jane who married William H. Nevil Logan. They had a son named Harvey Logan who later became known as "Kidd Curry" Alice ran the post office at Hildy and she and her mother burned the wanted posters that came in on him because they were ashamed for anyone to know that Kidd Curry was their nephew and cousin.

Benjamin Franklin Johnson was born in 1773-1776 in VA. His parents names are a mystery in spite of three years of searching. I have been told that Ebenezer Johnson who moved first to Bourbon Co, Ky then on to Fleming Co, Ky was his father. The researcher who gave me the information has never sent proof. Benjamin married Drucilla Phelps in VA and four of their 16 children were born there. They moved into Fleming Co about 1799 to 1800. They traveled with a group of people including Barnabus Johnson and his children who stopped in Madison Co where Barnabus died. Barnabus was from Green brier Co, WV. Benjamin's oldest child "Percilla Elizabeth Johnson is listed as being born in Stanhausey, Kanawha Co, VA, which is now WV. I have not been able to find any census or tax list for Kanawha Co, to check where Benjamin and family lived. We hope someday to find his origins and parents. Benjamin was also a traveling Preacher. I assume he was a Baptist since so many of his descendants were Elders and Ministers of the Baptist faith. Drucilla Phelps is the daughter of Samuel Phelps born in VA in 1750, his wife name was Elizabeth? She had brothers named William, Samuel, Zachariah, and Elkhana. They all moved to Ky the same time she and Benjamin did. She named her fourth born child Zachariah Richard Johnson after her brother and another son Samuel Phelps Johnson after her father or brother. I do not have her sisters names.
