John Martin, who was the first to shed blood in the Martin-Tolliver feud of Rowan County, Kentucky. Later he shot and killed Floyd Tolliver.

Lucy Trumbo Martin, John Martin's wife, who was on the train at the time her husband, handcuffed, was slain near Farmers, Rowan County, Kentucky, a few miles from Morehead. Mrs. Martin died at the age of sixty-eight. I knew the old lady well and she often spoke of the "troubles" to me when no one was "nigh."

Son of John Martin & Lucy O'Leary
Ben Martin and his wife. Ben Martin was a little lad when the "troubles" started.

Ben Martin, John's son, and little John Martin, who saw their father dragged through the jail house the day of the "killin'" of Floyd Tolliver.

The old depot through which John Martin was carried handcuffed and dying after being shot on the train which was bringing him back to Rowan County for trial. Beyond the drugstore is the Clay Powers Hotel in which John Martin died.

Hargis Hall where Tollivers and Martins have been classed. It stood within a stone's throw of the courthouse and the Carey House where their kinsmen were shot to death.

We cannot trace the descendants of William Martin before the date of 1760 and this is the date we start from in this book.

Descendents of William Martin, 1760-1832

William Martin was born about 1760 according to his will of 1832. William Martin was not recorded in the 1840 census, so he must have passed away before the 1840 census was taken. His will in 1832 would have made him 72 years old. His wife, Susannah Indor Martin, in the 1850 Census was living in Floyd County, Kentucky, with her baby boy, John Martin and his wife, Anna Gearhart Martin. Susannah, born 1764 was 86 years old then, and was not recorded in the 1860 Census, so evidently she had died before the ~~1860~~<sup>1860 census</sup> was taken, making her about 96 years old.

William and Susannah and family came from Virginia to Kentucky about 1806 and located at the mouth of Patton Branch on Right Beaver Creek in what is now Knott County and bought his first ~~be~~ tract of land from David Morgan on December 4, 1808—deed recorded in Book A, page 8 in the Floyd County Clerk's office at Prestonsburg, Ky. William <sup>and his sons</sup> bought the patent to back lands <sup>making</sup> a large boundary of land beginning at or near the mouth of Rock Fork Creek in Floyd Co, <sup>thence</sup> ~~there~~ running up Right Beaver Creek so as to include all the lands on each side of Right Beaver Creek up to the Richard Hall Branch. William and Annanah were buried in the Patton Fork area above Wayland, Ky.

George Martin, born 1835, a grandson of William became the owner of a part of the old homestead; later he sold the homestead to Judge David "Bud" Martin by deed bearing the date of October 27, 1873, recorded in Deed Book No. 1, page 34 in the Clerk's office in Prestonsburg. Judge David "Bud" Martin's children own a part of this old homestead, near the mouth of Patton Branch on Right Beaver Creek in Knott Co., Ky. The Martins have kept title of this old homestead from 1808 to the present date of 1960.

DESCENDANTS OF WILLIAM MARTIN, 1760-1832

William Martin was born about 1760 according to his will of 1832. William Martin was not recorded in the 1840 census, so he must have passed away before the 1840 census was taken. We think William Martin died at the age of 72, and his will in 1832 would have made him 72 years old. His wife, Susannah Tudor Martin, in the 1850 census, was living in Floyd County, Kentucky, with her baby boy, John Martin and his wife, Anna Gearhart Martin, Susannah Tudor Martin, born 1764, was 86 years old then, and was not recorded in the 1860 census, so evidently she had died before the 1860 census was taken, making her about 96 years old.

William Martin and wife, Susannah Tudor Martin and family came from Virginia to Kentucky about 1806 and located at the mouth of Patton Branch on Right Beaver Creek, then in Floyd County, now Knott County, Kentucky, and bought his first tract of land from David Morgan on December 4, 1808, and this deed is recorded in Book A on page 8, in the Floyd County Court Clerk's Office, in Prestonsburg, Kentucky. This tract of land was William Martin's old homestead. Then William Martin began buying the first patent land and his sons began buying the patent to back lands making a large boundary of land beginning at or near the mouth of Rock Fork Creek in Floyd County, Kentucky, thence running up Right Beaver Creek so as to include all the land on each side of Right Beaver Creek up to the Richard Hall Branch; the deed corner is on the upper Rock Lick, opposite the mouth of Richard Hall Branch, about one mile above Dry Creek on Right Beaver Creek now in Knott land in Floyd County, Kentucky. William Martin and wife were George Martin, born 1835, a grandson of William Martin and Susannah Tudor Martin became the owner of a part of the old homestead of William Martin and George Martin sold this old homestead to Judge David "Bud" Martin by Deed bearing date of October 27, 1873, recorded in Deed Book Number One on page 340 in the Floyd County Court Clerks Office at Prestonsburg, Kentucky. Judge David "Bud" Martin's children own a part of this old William Martin homestead, near the mouth of Patton Branch on Right Beaver Creek in Knott, County, Kentucky. The Martins have kept title of this old Martin homestead from 1808 to the present date of 1960.

A. William Martin, born about 1760, married Susannah Tudor Martin.

1B. David Martin born about 1784, thrice married: first wife, Millie Spradlin; second wife, Sallie Morris; and third wife, Fanny Rose.

2B. Susannah Martin born about 1788, married Eli Johnson on December 11, 1814, in Floyd County, Kentucky. (Marriage record)

3B. Millie Martin born about 1790, married James Martin on February 18, 1811 in Floyd County, Kentucky. (Marriage record)

4B. Joel Martin born about 1792, married Rebecca Fletcher on March 15, 1812 in Floyd County, Kentucky; (Marriage record) second wife was Polly Morgan.

5B. Ann Martin born about 1794, married Patrick Johnson, June 13, 1813, in Floyd County, Kentucky. (Marriage record)

6B. Rhoda Martin born about 1799, married Elder Jesse Adams on June 4, 1816, in Floyd County, Kentucky. (Marriage record)

7B. Sallie Martin born about 1802 married Joe Gearhart, July 1, 1821 in Floyd County, Kentucky. (Marriage record)

8B. William Martin, Jr. born about 1803, married Rita Adams.

9B. John Martin born about 1807, married Anna Gearhart on November 1, 1831, in Floyd County, Kentucky. (Marriage record)

These nine children of William Martin, Sr. and wife Susanah Tudor Martin, were born in Virginia, except John Martin, Jr. William Martin made a will. We can not find the will but the record of the Floyd County Circuit Court shows that the will was contested in 1832. The 1810 census shows William Martin was over 45 years old and probably 50 years old when 1810 census taken and was not recorded in the 1840 census in Floyd County, Kentucky, so he must have passed away before the 1840 census was taken.

CHAPTER 1

DESCENDANTS OF DAVID MARTIN, 1784-1844

William Martins eldest son, David Martin, was born about 1784. He was thrice married;

1B. David Martin, born about 1784 in Virginia; was the eldest son of William and Susannah Tudor Martin. David came to Kentucky about 1806 with his father, William, and located on Right Beaver Creek above the Patton Branch in Knott County, Kentucky. After the death of his father, he moved up Right Beaver Creek on the farm his father gave him by Deed of date of June 18, 1817, recorded in Deed Book B, page 14, in Floyd County Court Clerk's Office at Prestonsburg, Kentucky.

David Martin was killed by a limb on a falling tree that he cut down in April 1844. We have a letter from his son, George Martin, giving us this date. After the death of David Martin his children made a parole division of his farm located on Right Beaver Creek in Floyd County, Kentucky, now Knott County, Kentucky, which has been the home of the Martin Generation.

1B David Martin, born about 1784, first married Millie Spradlin.

They had one daughter;

John Martin had 3 sons when he was murdered - Benjamin, Thomas I. and John Linville. Benjamin went to Kansas and worked (no date as to when he went but he came back much later and died in Kentucky), Thomas died in 1904 and John Linville died in 1950. These boys are listed in order of their birth, the oldest first. The one who telegraphed his brother could have been Thomas, born 1881 or John born 1883. Benjamin was the only one to leave. He was born 1875.

Alvin M. Bowling was still alive in 1897. He was one of the witnesses to Robbie Oxley and E. E. Watkins wedding, 6June1897 by T. W. Rose, Morehead.

Back to the first paragraph:

The C. H. Ellis was the son of Ballard Ellis & Nancy Hatfield. See Census below.

John C. ... 4
Charles ... 2

Nancy was d/o Aley Hatfield & Ann Evans
Ballard was s/o Lloyd Ellis & Flora Spratt

In 22Oct1882 Ballard Ellis married Cynthia Alderson in Rowan Co. They had 4 children but only one survived, Racheal.

In the obit of Charlie, it states he was born in Oct. 24, 1880, Mingo Co., W. Va. He died Mar. 10, 1956 and is buried in New Alfrey Cemetery.

Ballard and his 2nd wife, Cynthia was in Elliott Co., Ky. in the 1900 Census. However Charlie was <sup>NOT</sup> any where with brother & sister. His age and dates do not match.

You figure this all out and let me know what you come up with, OK. By the way thank you for the CD's and the tape. Wish you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Oh, yes. The lumber Co. referred to , I believe, was HIXTON & _____? Co. at Rodburn. If this Co. was established after 1904 or late 1904, then it was Linville who got in touch with his brother, Benjamin. I will try later to find out.

As ever

P. S. I'm stillwaiting on the book.

Just a note - you may not be interested in all of this - but I find it interesting. This really helped me and Fred. He had heard Bowling was killed in the log woods and that was about all. Therefore we really couldn't establish a death date, ca.
